

Project Natale is a band of brothers playing brotherly music that has gained world respect as jazz players infusing the old and new, creating a sonification of their own. Joe and Lou Natale formed the group upon arriving to the D.C. area in 1998 and over the subsequent decade, a unison struck when legends Carl Cornwell (Tenor Saxophone) and Bob Butta (Piano) found a home as regular performers with the Project. Carl is one of the few remaining soloist who is constantly defining melody as he solos. Bob adds his harmonic voicing and rhythms as he colors and rocks. Joe is a constant with his bass patterns and choice of notes. Lou keeps the time on his drums as he energizes and excites the music.

The group has currently released their new CD, "Endangered Liberties" that displays hard-hitting passionate players that can create, converse and swing in, out and around the quintessential compositions and arrangements written by Joe Natale. The CD is receiving air play over WPFW, Washington, DC, WEAA, Baltimore, and internet radio stations Jazz Break NC, KEWU-Jazz 89.5 WA, universidadefm Brazil, Chill'N Groove Vancouver, Magazine Radio, Programing London, Bluzz Radio Paris.

Their performances captivate and please listeners as they continue to astonish the crowds wherever they perform. Past performances include; Twins Jazz Lounge, Blues Alley, DC and Baltimore Art Galleries, Wine Festivals, Jazz Concerts, Private Affairs, Lounges and Restaurant venues.
